VOL. VIII. NO. 26.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

When Mr. August Belmont gave $25,000 for the little weanling by St. Simon—Lady Reel last autumn, many held up their hands and declared it a "runt," predicting all kinds of money-thrown-away results. As a matter of fact, Mr. Belmont's judgment has been strongly endorsed by a steady and satisfactory development of the little filly and she now gives every promise of turning out well. The remarks upon the yearling sales in England of the Special Commissioner are well worth noting along the line of prices paid in this connection. Of those sold in England last year little can be said, as they may or may not be worth the amounts paid for them. Of those sold in 1900, however, lessons can be learnt, as the prices were heavier than in any previous year. No yearlings had ever been sold for anything like 10,000 guineas, the figure at which Seiptre was knocked down to Mr. R. Sievier. No one can be of the opinion that she was dear either, as she won her first engagement, the Woodcote Stakes, and gave good proof that she must win a great deal in the future. In the purchase of Duke of Westminster for $5,600, Mr. Sievier made about the best deal of all times, as the colt got back a goodly share of his purchase money in two races, and was afterward sold for 21,000 sovereigns. Of others sold that have paid or are certain to pay their way, there is the colt by Gallinule—Tragedy, purchased by Mr. Foxhall Keene, for $2,500 guineas, and the winner of the only race he has appeared in—the Hook Plate at Sandown, of 1,371 sovereigns, but there is all the promise of his making a real good horse. Pekin, sold to Mr. G. Prentice for 2,100 sovereigns, and a winner this year of two races out of six. Ice Maiden sold for 1,900 sovereigns, and is a winner of one race, namely, a nursery of 460 sovereigns. St. Benet sold for 1,250 sovereigns, started twice and won once, the race being worth 750 sovereigns. Lady Macdonald sold for 1,000 sovereigns, started eight times, won twice, amounting to 390 sovereigns. Of the thirty-one others sold for 1,000 sovereigns or upward, ten have not yet started, and twenty-one have run, without success.—Spirit of the Times.

Harry Cochran, who signed to ride for W. C. Whitney at a salary of $15,000 this year, made a record among jockeys last season that will last for many a day. He rode in 1,247 races—nearly 400 more than his nearest rival. Cochran was placed 527 times, a marvelous percentage and another record. In order to achieve this result Cochran had to be almost continuously in the saddle. He never missed a day's racing from New Orleans races to Saratoga. At the latter place the first break came through an accident. He was thrown out of the saddle by one of John McCafferty's horses in a mix-up on the first turn and escaped death by a narrow margin. This laid him up for a week.

During the past month the great strain on the boy's constitution and nervous force began to tell on him. He failed to show the ability he had previously demonstrated, and lost race after race that he should have won. Just when his nervous system was all at "sixes and sevens" his parents decided to take him away from the track and give him a rest. He will go out to Indian territory to hunt and fish for two months and then return to the east for the racing season.

Cochran's father manages him. He recently stated that he had broken Harry's contract with Mr. Whitney because there was a clause in it which allowed Mr. Whitney to send the boy to England to race if he chose. Mr. Cochran, of course, has the boy's interest at heart, but he has made many mistakes in his management. In the first place, he kept him riding races too long and the lad "staled" and lost his form. Now, again, he was too particular. When Clarence Mackay wished to sign Harry at a big salary, Mr. Cochran stipulated that he was not to gallop horses in the morning nor to sleep at the stable. Mr. Mackay thought those conditions were ridiculous and broke off all negotiations.—New Orleans Picayune.

With the meeting a little more than half over, the Crescent City Jockey Club has distributed among the owners, up to and including Saturday, January 25, the sum of $119,736.50. This amount has been scattered among 168 stables, and 99 of them have won $250 or more. A. Simons heads the list with $5,656, then follow James Arthur & Co. $5,654, and G. C. Bennett & Co. $5,492. Sixteen different stables have won $2,000, or over, while twenty-one have won over a $1,000. Coburn still leads the jockeys with forty-six firsts to his credit, but last week made little gains, having only ridden two winners during the six days. His work was much below his average. Lyne had a good week and continues to improve his score. Among the steeplechase riders Bartley and Penn are tied for first honors, each having ridden three winners, two seconds and one third.

Bellario and Beau Gallant, the four-year-olds which Richard Croker has had wintering at the Melbourne stud of W. S. Barnes, Lexington, Ky., will be shipped east in a few days to David Gideon, who will manage the pair during the spring and summer. In the fall it is thought that Beau Gallant will be shipped to England and raced there. Both have wintered well at Beau Gallant's birthplace, and are in the best of condition.

John Huggins, the trainer for Mr. Whitney's English stable of race horses, received a cablegram last Tuesday from his assistant trainer at Newmarket which conveyed the unwelcome news that the Derby colt Nasturtium was suffering from a chill and was under veterinary treatment. Experts said tonight that the chill would not necessarily be a serious thing unless followed by other alarming symptoms.

Word comes from Memphis, Tenn., that Joe Ullman, the well-known bookmaker, has announced that he would make a winter book on the American Derby. Dan Stuart, Leo Mayer and Charley Dugan will be associated with Ullman, and a $500,000 bank roll will be back of the combination which will offer the usual pay-or-play book on the big Chicago race to be run June 22. Prices and quotations will be made public next week, and the firm's headquarters will be at Hot Springs.

J. W. Russwurm, secretary of the Tennessee Breeders' Association, it is rumored, will not act as secretary of the Worth track, as has been announced, for the reason that Sam Wagner wanted him to begin work at once, and he could not leave Cumberland Park at this time. There is also no truth in the New Orleans report that he will act as clerk of the scales at the Memphis spring meeting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Old Fox bids fair to develop into one of the crack "leppers" at New Orleans. His showing in his maiden effort over the sticks, in which he finished second to Falella, was a good one, and he followed it up by winning the next time out and clipping two seconds off the track record.

Walter Jennings will ship direct from San Francisco to Saratoga, where he will "prep" his horses for the meeting at that point. He expects to take about fifteen horses, several of which will be maiden two-year-olds.

Rosinante, one of the gamest race mares ever seen on a California track, will never again face a starter. There is a chance for some breeder to secure a great brood mare, as she comes from a producing family.

Andrisa will not be raced after the present season at Oakland. She will be sent back to Rancho del Paso to be bred to one of the many stallions at the big ranch.

J. J. Ogles and jockey Hope have parted company, and young Minder will in future wear the colors of the Texas turfman.

OAKLAND FORM CHART.

OAKLAND, CAL., January 29.—Seventy-sixth day. New California Jockey Club. Winter Meeting. Weather clear; track good.

Presiding Judge, Joseph A. Murphy. Starter, J. J. Holtman.

Racing starts at 2:10 p. m.

Time, 1:10½.

Winner—B. h, by Ragnarok—Ollie Bird. Went to post at 2:16. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Sharp Bird was good and fresh and ran an improved race. He showed a clean turn of speed, but bore out as usual in the stretch and is hardly as good as formerly. Dollie Wiethoff showed improvement. She displayed much speed and stuck well throughout. Tiburon broke slowly but made up much ground. He should win soon. Fridolin was going well at the end. February closed a gap on the extreme outside. Novia was off badly and was repeatedly cut off.

Scratched—30189 Meadow Lark, 102.

Overweights—February, 5 pounds; Modder, 4; Skip Me, 3.

Sharp Bird, show, 1 to 2. Dollie Wiethoff, show, 6 to 5. Tiburon, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 2:51, 50, 1:15, 1:41½.

Winner—Ch. c, by Linden—Peninah. Went to post at 2:43. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Commissioner Forster broke with the webbing in his mouth but quickly took a good position behind the pacemakers and ran over them in the stretch. Cougar broke slowly and gradually overcame a big lead. Ada N. showed a fine turn of speed, displayed stamina and is getting good. She runs at her best however in the mud. Arigato ran unexpectedly well throughout. Invictus, Koenig and Scintillate are an ordinary lot and were badly outclassed.

Overweights—Commissioner Forster, 2 pounds.

Cougar, show, 1 to 5. Ada N., show, 4 to 5.

30439 THIRD RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 2:41, 48½, 1:15, 1:22½.

Winner—Ch. c, by Goldfiash—Silence. Went to post at 3:09. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won pulled up; second handily. Quiet quickly assumed a commanding lead and, under restraint throughout, ran a good race. He outclassed his field and should beat better horses. Chandoo ran like a stayer, responding gamely at the end. Jangler outran to the stretch, closed stoutly. He evidently wants a longer route and can do better. Claudator ran well throughout. Arthur Ray showed his usual speed, but evidently is a non-stayer. Autumn Time was outclassed.

Scratched—29829 El Chihuahua, 122.

Quiet, show, 1 to 2. Chandoo, show, 4 to 5. Jangler, show, out.

30440 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $600. 3-year-olds and upward. The Macdonough Handicap.

Time, 2:51, 49½, 1:15, 1:40½.

Winner—Br. c, by Sain—Ada Reese. Went to post at 3:33. At post 1 minute. Start very straggling. Won eased up; second easily. Corrigan obtained a big advantage at the start and made the most of it. He was undoubtedly the best however. He ran well in hand and his race was a remarkably good one. The slightly cuppy going favored him but was against Water Cure which broke six or eight lengths behind. The latter failed to show his usual brilliant speed. He was evidently keyed up but was at a disadvantage with the jockey as compared with O'Connor. Mac Gyle, also off very badly, showed a clever turn of speed but was probably somewhat outclassed.

Scratched—30207 Ordnung, 100.

Corrigan, show, out. Floronso, show, 1 to 2. Water Cure, show, out.

30441 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, JANUARY 30, 1902.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Joe Ullman, the eastern bookmaker, has arrived at Hot Springs, Ark., with George Smith (Pittsburg Phil) and Leo Mayer. Ullman says that besides making a $500,000 winter book on the American Derby, he will offer future quotations on the Montgomery Handicap, the initial feature of the spring meeting in Memphis.

W. M. Rogers, owner of Colonial Girl and Fitzkanet, now racing at Oakland, has purchased Vantine. The consideration is said to have been $1,000.

Charles Boots will breed his mares this year to Piccolo, Brutus and Orsini. The latter is the son of Ormonde, owned by W. O'B. Macdonough.

The entry of Ben Frost, at New Orleans, has been refused for the rest of the meeting.

CHARLESTON FORM.

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 29.—The form of Thursday's Charleston fields is:

First Race—Diva, John W. Dahney, Custodian.

Second Race—Frank B. Dominis, Bad Penny.

Third Race—Sam Lazarus Esq., Maria Bolton, Lake Fonso.

Fourth Race—Gale Todd, Incandescent, Salome.

Fifth Race—Julietta B., Soudana, Lulu Hammond.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Redwald broke slowly, but closed ground steadily and came through strongly on the rail in the stretch. He was favored by the puppy going. Tower of Candles got off badly and was forced into the worst going in the first half. She was probably the best. Vantine beat the gate, but tired in the stretch. Afghan closed strongly. Rollick was badly handled. His recent long races in the mud have probably dulled his speed. He can do much better and wants a route. The others were outclassed.
Scratched—30290 Saul of Tarsus, 109; 30125 Orleans, 99; 30407 Captivate, 99.
Overweights—Redwald, 1 pound; Fine Shot, 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Aloha—Blanche.

Went to post at 4:26. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Aloha II., off badly, closed a big gap, but was probably lucky to beat Bab. The latter appeared a certain winner in the stretch, but Hoar was caught napping at the end. Harry Thatcher showed an unusually good race. Picador showed up poorly in his preliminary. He was unable to keep his position and was repeatedly shut off. He can do much better. Watch him. Bob Palmer ran well and was evidently meant. Duke of York tired after showing a good burst of speed and should improve.

Winner—B. g. by Blazes—Bettie Prince.
Went to post at 1:59. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Prince Blazes worked his way to the leaders in the run down the backstretch, caught St. David tiring in the run home, and was going away at the finish. St. David was going easy first three-quarters but collapsed when caught. Elsie Bramble was doing her best all the way. Gracious showed early speed but found the journey too far.
Scratched—30356 Excelsis, 106.

Winner—Ch. g. by Inspector B.—Landslip.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Small Jack was under restraint to the stretch turn. He came to the outside at this point and, wearing the leaders down, got up in the last stride. If You Dare set a fast pace. The effort told on him at the end, where he stopped. Ante Up failed in the last sixteenth. Jim Nap saved a lot of ground at the home turn, and finished in the heavy going. Ben Frost ran away a mile to a false break.
Overweights—Small Jack, 3 1/2 pounds; Euterpe, 1 1/2; Quite Right, 2 1/2.

Time, 3:10.
Winner—Ch. g. by Little Minch—Ivy Benjamin.
Went to post at 3:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dagmar was under restraint until the last turn of the field. He went to the front when ready and came away without an effort. Mr. Rose was eased up all through the last sixteenth. MacLaren and Patroon were used up setting the pace. Both tired. Just before time set for the horses to be called to the post, it was discovered that Cantadas was in no fit condition to race. All bets were declared off and twenty minutes given for new booking.
Scratched—30399 Cantadas, 132.

Winner—Ch. f. by Service—Miss Howard.
Went to post at 3:59. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Wilton just managed to last long enough. Navasota and Pure Dale are quick beginners. Merry Sister came very wide rounding into the stretch but finished strongly and was wearing the leaders down. Computation finished next to the inside rail in the deep going. Filley Deck should improve. She was a bit green at the start.
Overweights—Wilton, 1 pound; Lady Matchless, 2 1/2.

Time, 25 1/2, 51 1/2, 1:05 1/2.
Winner—B. c. by Kingstock—Annie R.
Went to post at 3:38. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Clifton Boy was much favored by the start. He broke running and secured a three lengths lead before the others were well in their strides. Laracor was coming strongly at the end. Tambourine II. does not like to be tiptoed. Palms, with an even break, would have been a keen contender. She had to run all around her field. The others had no mishaps.
Overweights—Laracor, 5 pounds; Palms, 3.
Clifton Boy, show, 2 to 1. Laracor, show, 1 to 2. Tambourine II., show, out. Latch String, show, 1 to 2.

30445 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $150. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.
